

THIS NOTICE IS DIRECTED TO ALL INDIVIDUALS WHO WERE STUDENTS ENROLLED IN THE DIAGNOSTIC MEDICAL SONOGRAPHY (DMS) PROGRAM AT CANADIAN ALL CARE COLLEGE (CACC) BETWEEN NOVEMBER 4, 2019, AND NOVEMBER 9, 2022.

Please read this Notice carefully, as it may affect your rights.

1. What is this lawsuit about?

A class action lawsuit was commenced against Canadian All Care College (CACC) on behalf of students who were enrolled in the DMS Program between November 4, 2019, and November 9, 2022. The lawsuit alleges that the program failed to meet regulatory requirements, causing financial and educational harm to students.

The parties have now reached a proposed settlement, subject to approval by the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

2. What is the proposed settlement?

Under the terms of the proposed settlement:

- The defendant shall pay the sum of $1,400,000 to resolve the claim;
- Each class member will receive approximately $450 per month enrolled in the DMS program, subject to the how many class members make claims during the claim period (net of approved legal fees, HST, disbursements, and administrative costs);
- The defendants do not admit liability and have agreed to settle the case without an admission of wrongdoing.

3. Court Hearing to Approve the Settlement

A hearing to approve the proposed settlement will take place on May 27, 2025, at 10:00 AM before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice. The hearing will be conducted virtually via Zoom. The Zoom link is: (Zoom details will be provided at a later date).

At this hearing, the Court will decide whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of Class Members. The Court will also determine whether to approve Class Counsel's contingency fee agreement, which provides for legal fees of 33% of the settlement fund, plus HST and disbursements.

4. Your Rights as a Class Member

If you are a Class Member, you have the following options:

(a) Do Nothing and Receive Compensation

If you support the settlement and wish to receive your share of the settlement funds, you do not need to take any action at this stage.

Upon approval of the settlement, further notice to class members will be provided indicating how they can claim compensation, including the duration of time for making a claim (also known as the “claims period”). No claims can be made, accepted or considered after the expiry of the claims period.

(b) Object to the Settlement

If you oppose the settlement or the approval of Class Counsel’s legal fees, you may submit a written objection to the Court. To do so:

- Send a written statement by May 16, 2025, at 5:00 PM (EST) to Class Counsel at info@allcareclassaction.com.
- Your written statement should include your full name, contact information, and reasons for objecting.

5. Additional Information

Further details about the settlement, including Court filings, will be available on the class action website: www.allcareclassaction.com.
